Approved For Release 2001/07/27: CIA-RDP75-00149R000600330060-7

SECRET SERVICE

Britain Plans Sharp Check FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

Secret Service Monday faced a 1933. rigorous checkup following the disclosure that a former top intelligence official and Britain's few months after he left Cambridge Williams I Laive February Living III was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams I Laive February Living III was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams I Laive February Living III was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams III was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby, now 55, was recruited by Soviet intelligence only a few months after he left Cambridge Williams II was reported that Kim Philby II was reported that the later by the II was reported that the II was reported that the II was reported that the II was repor Russian spy for 34 years.

John Philby told radio and ago while working as a news-working for the British Foreign paper correspondent, told him Service and he tipped them off

LONDON -(UPI) - Britain's a spy for the Russians since top link with the U.S. Central bridge University. He later be-Intelligence Agency, had been a came a senior officer in British intelligence.

Informed sources said that television audiences that his fa-Philby recruited Guy Burgess ther, Harold (Kim) Philby, who and Donald MacLean as Soviet vanished from Beirut four years agents in 1938 while they were recently in Muscow he had been that they had been discovered. Burgess and MacLean defected in 1951. MacLean still lives in Moscow. Burgess died there.

Philby visited his father in Moscow recently.

Philby said his father is now working in Moscow as a journalist and is "free for the first time in 34 years to think and speak freely and being rewarded excellently for those many years' service to commu nism.